

FOREWORD

The views expressed in the Department of Defense (DOD) Breast Cancer Research Program's 2002 Era of Hope Proceedings are those of the authors and do not reflect official policies or positions of the U.S. Army Medical Research and Materiel Command, the Department of the Army, the DOD, or the U.S. Government.

In conducting the research described in these Proceedings, the investigators adhered to the Guide for the Care and Use of Laboratory Animals, 7th ed., National Research Council, National Academy of Sciences, 1996. In addition, research performed under the auspices of the U.S. Government was conducted in compliance with the Animal Welfare Act and other federal statutes and regulations related to animals and to scientific experiments involving animals.

Investigators conducted their human subject research in accordance with applicable federal, DOD, and Army regulations, including Food and Drug Administration (FDA) Regulations 21 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) 50 and 56, 32 CFR 219, 45 CFR 46; DOD Directives; applicable Army and Office of the Army Surgeon General regulations; and United States Code Title 10, Section 980.

All investigators abided by federal, DOD, and Army safety regulations. In addition, they followed the National Institutes of Health Guidelines for Research Involving Recombinant DNA Molecules as applicable.

References to commercial organizations and/or trade names in these Proceedings do not constitute an official Department of the Army endorsement or approval of the products or services mentioned.
